HI, I'M CRAIG GOLDBLATT.

In the last 2 decades, I've been a sought-after International Keynote Speaker, Impact Coach and Trainer to some of the biggest businesses, charities, nonprofit organizations and top-performers in the world.

My life purpose is helping you create a meaningful legacy so we create a better world together.

I've helped incredible organizations like Microsoft, EasyJet, Carlsberg, Article 25, The Diana Award, The Ella Foundation and more clarify their mission and impact the world.

I also work one-on-one with remarkable leaders, entrepreneurs, CEOs and individuals who are hungry to live their true purpose, contribute deeply and embrace life at the highest level.

As a traveler, I've immersed myself in some of the most diverse cultures on the planet, learning lessons in love, courage, compassion and empowerment.

Now, with an enhanced awareness of purpose, intention, motivation and human identity, I bring those lessons with me to the stage, our workshops, our journeys to the Amazon and intensive 1:1 coaching.

That means I offer unique tools that are extremely effective— actionable strategies to understand yourself deeply, reveal your true purpose and clarify your vision.

I look forward to working with you!

YOUR POTENTIAL IS LIMITLESS!

“Craig generated huge energy in the room... No one could help but be affected by his passion and focus on giving the audience as much value as possible.

Many speakers can stay on the surface but Craig gets you to dig deep, to challenge - to be brave. Lives will not be the same as he, with mastery, addresses cause rather than effect, delivered with an air of authority and love.”

Sarah Hopwood, Motivational Speaker
